MARRIAGE: WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY.

THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY! Mass and many a wife endures years of bodily suffering and of mental anguish, prestrate and help-iess, embittering her life, that of her husband, and nazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from causes which, if Anoura, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the hus-band embarrassments and pecuniary difficulties hav-ing their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the com-panion of his bosom.

How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every hosband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and hap-piness of both may be avoided! SICKLY AND UNHAPPY WIVES. Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O.

"DR. A. M. MAURICAU—My Deer Sir: The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion, for which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for myself and wrife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions.
"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great an guish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst.
At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and persasal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imperted to my wrife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomeaux provided a remedy. It nopened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary consideration can ever repay the oblirations I am under to you for having been the means of in parting to us the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion. But for

"My Dear Sin: I know you will have the kindness to bear with nee in enconsching upon your time, while I acknowledge (in behalf of myself and wife) the obligations we feel ourselves under to you induving made known certain matters, contained in your most invainable 'Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' It has been worth its weight in gold to me. If I express unyself rather warmly, you will see that I can not do so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your brook through the merest curiosity. I look apon it as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly, to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year; and that only, with the most sinted economy, millicing with barely the necessaries of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect poon my health: I felt less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of persoverance.

"This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condition of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six years, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and management of bousehold affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would I have given had It the six years to live over again I Competence and Health.

What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bed of sickness!—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of "The Markied Woman's Private Medical Companion."

To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities strendart upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations contained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duty to become possessed of knowledge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a mother, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated.
